Dear Sir/Madam,

I am an experienced iOS and macOS developer with over 20 years experience developing in Objective C ( since NeXT days ), 8 years developing in Swift, 14 years developing for iOS and over 20 years developing for macOS. I am passionate about coding, code quality and developing for Apple platforms. I have developed for macOS since it was first released as Mac OS X and for iOS since the SDK was first released. I have architected systems both large ( online banking portals ) and small ( single use iOS applications ). I would appreciate your consideration for the position you are advertising.

Sincerely yours,

Vincent Coetzee
